

“Beginning of the year” potluck

תש"פ 2019-2020

You are cordially invited to a “beginning-of-the-year” informal picnic / potluck for the math department.

We will meet in the Amphitheater in Ashkelon National Park on Sunday, October 20th, 2019, at 11:00, take a walk and have a picnic. For the exact location, please see map on next page.

A potluck is a party or a picnic where each guest brings some food to share with the others. It is recommended that every family with N members brings a dish (choice of dish entirely up to you), which should be enough for at least $(N+4)$ people. If you are interested in attending, please register here: <https://tinyurl.com/BGUMath2019>

If you have any questions, please contact entova@bgu.ac.il.
