

The Israel Journal of Math is planning a special volume in honor of Hillel Furstenberg, on the occasion of his retirement. Articles meant for this volume should be sent directly to the journal no later than September 30, 2003. They will be refereed according to the usual standards of the journal.